

ENFIELD SENIOR CENTER PRESENTS...

HYDE PARK

CULINARY INSTITUTE * FDR HOME & MUSEUM

SEPTEMBER 16, 2015 WEDNESDAY

Over the years, New York State's Hyde Park has become synonymous with great cuisine and the 32nd President of the United States. Along the banks of the renowned Hudson River, this area features the sites of today's attractions.

Our first stop this morning is the famed Culinary Institute of America, which outgrew its original facility in New Haven, CT and relocated to Hyde Park in 1972. The CIA has become the country's pre-eminent culinary arts school. Upon arrival, we will be led on a student-guided tour, followed by a three-course lunch at the CIA's American Bounty Restaurant. The meal will consist of: Frisée-Arugula Salad with Toasted Panko, Grilled Asparagus & Lemon Vinaigrette, Sautéed Chicken Breast with Roasted Garlic Potato Gratin, Sautéed Spinach, Lemon Butter Sauce, and a Hot Fudge Sundae with Mike Chocolate Brownie, Vanilla Ice Cream, Cherry Compote and Candied Pistachios, Coffee or Tea.

After lunch, we move on to the Franklin D. Roosevelt National Historic Site, birthplace and home of our nation's only four-term President. We will tour the home with its Italianate-Federal architectural style and learn how it served as a "Summer White House" as well as a place that hosted foreign dignitaries such as Winston Churchill. The grounds also serve as the final resting place for both Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt, who are buried in the Rose Garden. The museum includes exhibits, collections, and artifacts from FDR's life and times, a trove from some of the 20th century's most defining moments in history.
